Home to countless neighborhood restaurants, music venues, cemeteries and historic homes, the Mid-City neighborhood was developed in the early 20th century where the Metairie, Gentilly and Esplanade Ridges meet. Though no longer the geographic center of New Orleans, Mid-City remains "in the heart" of New Orleans, easily accessible by bus, cab or via the Canal St. streetcar. Key attractions include City Park and its annual "Celebration in the Oaks," the New Orleans Museum of Art, and the New Orleans Fairgrounds—home to the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival. On Super Sunday every spring, the downtown Mardi Gras Indian tribes meet at Orleans Ave. on Bayou St. John and parade in stunning handmade headdresses and costumes...a feast for the eyes!

Mid-City residents are actively participating in the rebirth of their neighborhood: learn more at www.mcno.org
